Cartoonist Bill Hoest will be the star attraction at the Men's Club Breakfast, Sunday, January 12 at 10 a.m.

Bill Hoest

Bill Hoest is one of the most prolific cartoonists in the country today. He is the creator of "Agatha Crumm", a comic strip about a 77 year old woman tycoon, syndicated by King Features in 225 newspapers. "The Lockhorns" is a cartoon panel about a battling husband and wife and appears in 450 newspapers, including those in Bangkok and Helsinki. "Bumper Stickers" is a weekly cartoon about cars and is featured in the National Enquirer. "Laugh Parade" is a three panel column in Parade Magazine. "Howard Huge", his newest cartoon, features a loveable St. Bernard dog and appears weekly as the center panel of his "Laugh Parade" cartoon column.

In addition to these newspaper features, Bill Hoest's cartoons appear in the Ladies Home Journal, Good Housekeeping, Family Circle, Cosmopolitan and Playboy magazines. There are 20 Hoest cartoon collections published in paperback and hard cover as well.

This Men's Club Breakfast is open to everyone over the age of 10, but reservations are a MUST. To make your reservation, please call Herb Feiwei, 744-7704, evenings. A nominal charge of $3 per person will be made for all non-Men's Club members.

Celebrating Hanukkah Together In The Synagogue and At Home

Plans have been made for two wonderful Hanukkah Parties in the synagogue: one for children and one for grown-ups on Monday, December 9.

From 5:30 — 7 p.m., in the Lemberg Auditorium, the children of the congregation and their families will be treated to a Hanukkah Party with all the Hanukkah treats, including latkes!, courtesy Parents Association.

From 7 — 9 p.m., and perhaps longer, the grown-ups of the congregation are joyfully invited to celebrate the holiday together as an extended family in the Hall of Worship. A lavish buffet of foods associated with the celebration of Hanukkah, including latkes, will be served, complete with mulled wine. We will light the third candle in the magnificent Park Avenue Synagogue menorah, sing Hanukkah songs, join in dancing the hora and enjoy live music. Reservations are a MUST, so call the Synagogue Office, 369-2600, very soon and reserve a place for yourself, your family and friends. A minimal cost of $12.50 per person will help defray expenses.

How is Hanukkah celebrated?

The holiday of Hanukkah is celebrated for eight days, beginning with the 25th day of the month of Kislev. This year Hanukkah begins on Saturday night, December 7 and continues until sundown on Sunday, December 15.

On each of the eight nights we kindle the lights in the menorah, or Hanukkiyah, to commemorate the miraculous victory of the Jews over the Syrian Greeks during the second century B.C.E. In the Talmud the Rabbis tell a story which symbolizes the victory on the battlefield. A small cruse of oil was found when the Temple was rededicated which miraculously lasted for eight days. Just as a small amount of oil cast a great deal of light, so did a few Jews stand against the many and the mighty in order to preserve their faith.

How are the Hanukkah lights kindled? A candelabrum is used — Note: the Sisterhood Gift Shop has many varied and beautiful menorahs for sale which are suitable for use on this joyous holiday! — which has places for eight lights, in addition to a place for a ninth light

Congregants Invited To Special Music Service

On Friday evening, December 20, beginning at 8:30 p.m., the congregation is joyously invited to attend a special music service prepared and presented by Cantor David Lefkowitz, the Synagogue Choir and Neil Robinson, organist.

The music selected for this service will once again reflect the depth and breath of liturgical music inspired by the text of the service.

Come and enjoy this special music service and bring your family and friends. An Oneg Shabbat follows the service.

Shabbat Dinner In December Will Be Held On December 13

Yes, the date is right. Please make note of this change now. The Shabbat Committee announces that the congregational Shabbat Dinner usually held on the third Friday of the month, for this month only, will be held on the second Friday of the month — December 13.

We light the seventh Hanukkah candle on December 13 and this event will add to the joyous festivities which have become a hallmark of these monthly dinners.

Dinner follows services which begin at 6:15 p.m. in the sanctuary.

Make your reservation(s) today. Return your postcard which you received in the mail or call the Synagogue Office, 369-2600, during business hours. And enjoy...!

Few Against Many

When we light the first Hanukkah light this year on Saturday night, December 7, I shall be thinking of the few in ancient times who achieved victory over the many. A handful of Jews defeated the mighty forces of a Syrian Greek army. Jewish independence was established in the second century B.C.E. against overwhelming odds. If numbers mattered, there would have been no victory for the Maccabees.

If numbers had mattered. Think of the forum of nations today. If Israel's existence depended on the number of its supporters, where would Israel be? Take a vote in the United Nations and reason can be turned on its head, Zionism can be termed racism, wrong can be voted right.

If numbers were all that mattered, where would the Soviet Jewish prisoners of conscience get their hopes? Where would Soviet Jewry derive its strength to oppose the strong bear of the Soviet state? It seems like a fight against impossible odds: powerful commissars and a police state with awesome military power. Who in his right mind could oppose such might?

Jews, of course. For to us, opposing injustice is nothing new. When you look back to the story of the Maccabees, you know that your battle will not be the first. If you are the few fighting the many, why it has been done before!

Let us remember Soviet Jews. Let us remember Israel and its ongoing struggle. Let us cling ever more tenaciously to our collective hopes and aspirations even if the majority doesn't agree. The lights of Hanukkah can dissolve a great deal of darkness this year, as in years gone by.

An "All About Hanukkah" Workshop December 4

Want to discover the "how to" when we speak about celebrating Hanukkah? Then come to the workshop planned for parents of young children — and others, as well — on Wednesday, December 4, from 5:15 — 6 p.m. Parents of children in our Primary School are especially welcome.

The workshop will be led by Rabbi Wechsler. Together, ideas will be shared to make Hanukkah observance more a part of Jewish family life.

This workshop is one of a series of workshops, interested in the strictly practical, being held in Manhattan synagogues during the week before Hanukkah and sponsored by the congregations together with Behrman House Publishers, the publisher of Homestart, a series of pamphlets on Jewish holiday observance for young Jewish families.

The Daily Minyan Needs YOU!!

Every day, year round, the Daily Minyan meets at 5:45 p.m. in the Appleman Chapel. Conducted by Phil Swartz, the minyan is part of synagogue life, offering members and non-members the opportunity to pray — on a daily basis or, when necessary, to recited the kaddish.

Become a minyanaire. The minyan needs us all — all the time — to make sure that there are ten men and women present every day. This is a mitzvah that every man and woman, over the age of 13, should consider a personal responsibility.

Do your part, as often as you can. And remember the Morning Minyan, every Thursday at 7:30 a.m. with breakfast served following the service.

Camp Ramah Is A Better Summer Camp Experience

There is no doubt about it. The summer camp experience that a child has at Camp Ramah in the Berkshires cannot be duplicated anywhere else.

Camp Ramah is located in Wingdale, New York and registration for the Summer of 1986 is now open. It should be noted that there is a special reduced fee for those who register early, before January 31, 1986.

At Ramah, sports, drama, waterfront activities, arts & crafts, camping, music, computer science and other recreational activities play an important role as part of the total Jewish learning experience.

Hebrew studies, religious services and innovative educational activities enrich a camp experience in which meaningful friendships are formed and where personal growth as a Jew is emphasized.

Camp Ramah in the Berkshires is one of seven Ramah camps in the United States and Canada. It is operated by the Camp Ramah in the Berkshires Committee of the National Ramah Commission. The camp is under the educational supervision of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. It can accommodate 500 boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 17. All prospective campers should have a minimum of two years of Hebrew language studies.

Counselor staff is selected from among outstanding Jewish college students and Israeli specialists.

For more information, please contact Mrs. Rahel Bloch, Principal of the Religious School, at 369-2600, or Mrs. Pat Davidson, at 289-7771.

There is nothing like Camp Ramah and there is a long list of alumni/ae available to discuss why this is so!

Congratulations

The congregation offers a hearty Mazal Tov to: Mr. and Mrs. Nat Fogelson, upon the birth of their grandson, Joshua Michael Fogelson.

HANUKKAH

called the shamash. Generally wax candles are used, although some menorahs are made to be used with olive oil and a wick. On the first evening, the first candle is placed on the right side of the menorah. Then on each succeeding night, a candle is added to the left. The shamash is lit first and the proper blessings are said:

Barukh Atah Adonai Elohainu Melekh Ha-olam, asher kidshanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu l'hadlik ner shel Hanukkah.

Praised are You, Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has made us holy through His commandments and who has commanded us to kindle the Hanukkah light.

Then,

Barukh Atah Adonai Elohainu Melekh Ha-olam, she-asah nisim la-avotainu ba-yamim ha-hem baz-man hazeh.

Praised are You, Lord our God, King of the Universe, who performed miracles for our ancestors in those days, at this time.

On the first night only, Sheheheyanu is added: Barukh Atah Adonai Elohainu Melekh Ha-olam, sheheheyanu v'kee-y'manu v'hee-ge-anu lazman hazeh.

Praised are You, Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has kept us in life, sustained us and enabled us to reach this season.

and then the shamash is used to kindle that evening's lights. The kindling always starts on the left with the candle which has been added for the new day and continues by moving on to the right. On Friday night, the Shabbat candles are lit after the Hanukkah lights are kindled.

The menorah is often placed at a window, if practical, to give public recognition to God's deliverance of the Jews. Special attention should be paid to the children's involvement in kindling the lights. In many families more than one menorah is lit, the children lighting their own. Many customs have become identified with Hanukkah in addition to the kindling of the menorah, which greatly adds to the festivities. Parties — and everyone should come to the parties at the synagogue — with good food, singing, dancing and lighting of candles. Latkes (potato pancakes) are a traditional food, while in Israel, sufganiyot (doughnuts) have become a custom. Both are cooked in oil, one of the major symbols of Hanukkah. Children enjoy playing with the dreidel (a four sided top with four letters on it: nun, gimel, heh and shin). The letters on the dreidel are interpreted to mean Nes Gadol Hayah Sham — "a great miracle happened there".

And here in the United States, Hanukkah has become an occasion to exchange gifts, especially for the children. Be sure to take advantage of our wonderful Gift Shop which has suitable gifts for everyone on your Hanukkah gift list.

Living in two worlds, we Jews find ourselves celebrating two New Years. What better way can our Jewish singles start the new calendar year, then by gathering together to pray and have a good time together. For after the service there is an oneg shabbat.

Rabbi Wechsler will join the group to discuss a burning issue.

If you are a Jewish single, or if you know a Jewish single, please consider this your personal invitation to join this evening or to tell your friend about it.

Gillman On Christianity In The Sherr Institute

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the historic statement of Vatican II on the Jews. With this anniversary in mind, Dr. Neil Gillman, a long-time member of our Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies faculty and Associate Provost and Assistant Professor of Philosophies of Judaism at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, will devote five lectures during January and February to the subject "Judaism and Christianity".

How do Christians believe in a trinity while maintaining a belief in one God? What does the New Testament cause Christians to think about the Bible of the Jews? Why don't Jews accept the Christian claim that Jesus is the Messiah?

These and other questions will be explored so that we all may have a more realistic basis upon which to base future relations between Christians and Jews in years to come.

This course begins on Wednesday, January 15 at 8 p.m. Please consult the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies brochure for more information about this and other courses.

Synagogue Site Of Women's League Conference

The biennial World Affairs Conference, sponsored by the Women's League For Conservative Judaism, will be held at Park Avenue Synagogue on Thursday, December 12, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Sharing the platform and discussing church and state will be Henry Siegman, Executive Director of the American Jewish Congress and Father Charles Whelan, S.J., Professor, Fordham Law School. Dr. Harris Schoenberg, Director of the U.N. Office of the International Council of B'nai B'rith and a member of the Israel Mission to the United Nations will discuss Israel and the United Nations.

A fee of $10 per person includes registration and brunch. For more information, please call Sylvia Fine, 744-7481.

Dr. Yosef H. Yerushalmi Scholar-In-Residence At Shabbaton

Dr. Yosef Hayim Yerushalmi, Salo Wittmayer Baron Professor of Jewish History, Culture and Society and Director of the Center for Israel and Jewish Studies at Columbia University, will be the Scholar-In-Residence at the Shabbaton, January 17 and 18, 1986.

A Shabbaton is an intense experience in Jewish living within the context of traditional Shabbat observance. It begins Friday evening with services which are followed by a traditional Shabbat dinner. Shabbat lunch follows Shabbat morning services and an afternoon study session precedes the Havdalah service which concludes the Shabbaton at sundown.

Dr. Yerushalmi will deliver the Dorothy Tager Lectures on "Spanish Jewry: Patterns of Jewish Identity" during the Shabbaton. He will explore two different aspects of the Spanish Jewish past, each seen as an indication of recurring patterns in Jewish life. An outstanding Jewish scholar, Dr. Yerushalmi will deliver a lecture on "Underground Judaism: The Religion of the Marranos" on Friday evening following the Friday night meal and on Saturday afternoon on "Spain from the Early Nineteenth Century to Today".

A native New Yorker, he received his Ph.D. from Salo Baron at Columbia University in 1966. For the next 14 years he taught at Harvard, rising through the ranks to become Jacob E. Safra Professor of Jewish History and Sephardic Civilization and Chairman of the Department of Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations.

He has written numerous monographs and is the author of From Spanish Court to Italian Ghetto, Haggadah and History, The Lisbon Massacre of 1506, and, most recently, Zakhor: Jewish History and Jewish Memory, which won the 1983 National Jewish Book Award for history.

Professor Yerushalmi is a Fellow of the American Academy for Jewish Research and, in 1977, was a Fellow of the National Endowment for the Humanities. In 1976 he was awarded the Newman Medal for Distinguished Achievement by CUNY. He was a Rockefeller Fellow in the Humanities during 1983-84 and in 1985 he was elected to honorary membership in the Portuguese Academy of History in Lisbon. Dr. Yerushalmi's participation in the Shabbaton is made possible by the Dorothy Tager Education Fund. This fund, which sponsors the Dorothy Tager Lectures, is a living memorial to Dorothy Tager, who was an active participant in the Adult Education Program at Park Avenue Synagogue.

Members of the congregation and their friends are cordially invited to participate in the Shabbaton. Information about the Shabbaton will be mailed to the congregation this month. Watch for your letter in the mail and make your reservations quickly, as space is limited. Alan Levine is the chairman of the Shabbaton.
